

National Stroke Nursing Forum

Are you a nurse working within the speciality of stroke?

Do you wish to improve the quality of stroke care and promote advancement of stroke nursing within the UK?

Are you a member of the National Stroke Nursing Forum?

We are looking for regional representatives who may have a range of stroke nursing knowledge from clinical practice, management and/ or research and education to join our friendly and dynamic steering committee.

Stroke care continues to be an exciting and challenging specialism, with stroke nursing integral to supporting stroke survivors and their families. 2015 saw the launch of our first strategy document and this year will see the launch of our new look website and logo. As a member of the NSNF steering committee, you will be pivotal in supporting stroke nurses in your area.

The NSNF is an organisation run by nurses for nurses with a vision to support the implementation of high quality, evidenced based stroke nursing care across the UK. The NSNF is here to support stroke nurses and aims to represent your views in all its work.

For more information on the NSNF and read our 3 year Strategy, go to www.uclan.ac.uk/nsnf

To become a NSNF member simply email Lucy Cross (NSNF Administrator) NSNFEnquiries@uclan.ac.uk

For more information in regards to steering committee email NSNF Chair Clare Gordon on clare.gordon@rbch.nhs.uk

Please feel free to pass this information onto your nursing colleagues.
