

11th UK Stroke Association Forum Conference*GP Training Stream*Monday 28 November 2016*Room 11A, ACC Liverpool*Preliminary Programme

This GP training stream is a dedicated stream for GPs, Nurse Practitioners and Practice Nurses. In order to attend this session, you must purchase a one-day delegate pass which will enable you to attend this session; however the pass does not entitle you to attend other conference sessions.

10:00 – 17:00    Registration open

Refreshments served from 10:00 in the Exhibition Hall (Hall 2 Lower Level)

Lunch served at 11:45-12:30 in the Exhibition Hall (Hall 2 Lower Level)

10:00 – 18:15    Exhibition open (Hall 2 Lower Level)*12:30 – 12:40    Welcome*12:40 – 13:20    Diagnosis of Stroke and TIA MimicsDr Peter Humphry (Consultant Neurologist, Walton Centre for Neurology and Neurosurgery, Liverpool)13:20 – 14:00    What's New in Secondary CareProfessor Martin Dennis (Chair of Stroke Medicine, Centre for Clinical Brain Sciences, Stroke Research Group, University of Edinburgh)14:00 – 14:20    Detection and Management of Atrial FibrillationDr Matthew Fay (General Practitioner, The Willows Medical Practice, Trustee AF Association, Trustee Thrombosis UK)14:20 – 15:00    Primary and Secondary Prevention of StrokeDr Matthew Fay (General Practitioner, The Willows Medical Practice, Trustee AF Association, Trustee Thrombosis UK)15:00 – 15:30    EXHIBITION & REFRESHMENTS*15:30 – 16:20    Interactive Workshops*Cognitive Problems After StrokeDr Terry Quinn (Joint Stroke Association/Chief Scientist Office Senior Clinical Lecturer)Psychological Difficulties for those with StrokeDr Fergus Doubal (Stroke Association, Garfield Weston Foundation Senior Clinical Lecturer)16:20 – 16:40    Stroke Survivors' Perspective*16:40 – 17:00    Q&A and Closing Remarks

---

17:00 – 18:15      Welcome Drinks Reception
Hall 2              An excellent opportunity to network with colleagues over a welcome drink and canopies whilst enjoying the Stroke Association North West Community Choir performance and the North West Stroke Survivors Art Exhibition.

---

18:00                      Stroke Charities Fire and Glass walk Fundraising Event
City-side                Come along to watch fundraisers walking barefoot across a fire bed burning at 1200
Entrance                degrees Fahrenheit and walk over a bed of broken glass to raise vital funds for stroke
Piazza                    charities.

---

CONFERENCE CLOSES