

Centralising Acute Stroke Services

9am-4pm, 30th April 2018, Frank Rifkin Lecture Theatre,
Mayo Building, Salford Royal Hospital, Salford

Greater Manchester Stroke
Operational Delivery Network

09.00-09.30	Registration
09.30 - 09.35	Welcome	Sarah Rickard, Manager, Greater Manchester Stroke Operational Delivery Network
09.35-9.55	The evidence for changing stroke services	Ruth Boaden, Director, National Institute for Health Research, Collaborations for Leadership in Applied Health Research and Care GM
09.55-10.15	Planning and preparing for centralisation	Dr Jane Molloy, Clinical Lead, GMSODN
10.15-10.45	Establishing and sustaining a Comprehensive Stroke Centre	Dr Ilse Burger, Stroke Clinical Director, & Sarah Heathcote, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Salford Royal Hospital
10.45-11.05	Establishing and sustaining a Primary Stroke Centre	Dr Khalil Kawafi, Stroke Clinical Lead, Fairfield General Hospital
11.05-11.30	Becoming a District Stroke Centre and managing the change	Dr Jordi Morell, Stroke Clinical Lead, & Stephanie Wolff Therapy Manager, Manchester Royal Infirmary
11.30-11.50	Refreshments
11.50-12.10	Delivering an effective pre hospital pathway	Chris Ashton, GMSODN Coordinator & Paramedic
12.10-12.30	The importance of community services	Tracy Walker, Community Clinical Lead, GMSODN
12.30-12.50	Involving the voluntary sector and the patient/ carer voice	Chris Larkin, Stroke Association & Lucy Allard, member GMSODN Patient & Carer Group
12.50-13.40	Lunch
13.40-13.45	Welcome back	Sarah Rickard
Workshops
13.45-15.00	Commissioning and finance	Steve Dixon, Finance Director, NHS Salford CCG
	Community services	Tracy Walker
	Hyper acute care	Dr Ilse Burger & Sam Dickens, Senior Manager, Salford Royal Hospital
	Establishing a network to support change	Sarah Rickard & Dr Jane Molloy
15.00– 15.20	Refreshments
15.20-15.50	Q&A	Panel
15.50-16.00	Closing remarks	Sarah Rickard