

Greater Manchester Neuro-Rehabilitation
Operational Delivery Network

Hypertonia

Management

Study Day

Aim: To promote and facilitate effective MDT management of Hypertonia across the Greater Manchester region

Monday 14th January 2019

9am - 4.30pm

Venue: Undergraduate Centre Lecture Theatre 2, Manchester
Royal Infirmary

Cost: Free (to Greater Manchester Neuro-Rehab and Stroke NHS Staff)

Guest Speaker

Tim Walton (BTA Tutor)

Please register by 1st November 2018 for this event via the Greater Manchester Operational Delivery Network website:

<http://www.gmnrodn.org.uk/news/>

We will confirm whether you have been successful in securing a place after this date.

Agenda

8.30am Registration opens

9.00am Study Day to start

Contents of the day to include:

- Presentation by Tim Walton on hypertonia pathophysiology, features and triggers
- Interactive case study presentation by Tim Walton on hypertonia management and clinical reasoning
- Interactive workshops with specialist clinicians on:
 - Physical and postural management
 - Splinting, casting and lycra
 - 24hour management and the nurses role
 - Pharmacological management
 - The rehabilitation journey
- Introduction of the Greater Manchester Hypertonia Proforma
- Interactive group work involving case study discussion and the GM Hypertonia Proforma. (This will be targeted at delegates specific area of work i.e. acute, rehab or community)

*Lunch/refreshments will be provided, during which time you will have an opportunity to network with colleagues and suppliers.